Redemption Roasters

55 Long Lane, EC1A 9EJ

Training the future coffee of professionals in Aylesbury Prison, where their coffee is also roasted. Their delightful and compact second café is located right opposite Smithfield Market. redemptionroasters.com

The CoffeeWorks Project

2a Great Titchfield Street, W1D 1NN

The CoffeeWorks Project, which now roasts its own coffee in east London, has opened a fifth café in the latest coffee destination Fitzrovia, and it's surprisingly relaxed considering it's just off Oxford Street. A leatherclad Sanremo Cafe Racer machine catches the eye. coffeeworksproject.com

Rosslyn Coffee

78 Queen Victoria Street, EC4N 4SJ

Rosslyn has clearly thought through its coffee approach. It does the simple things well: the use of different roasters for espresso and milk drinks (Colonna and Modern Standard) and consistent batch-brew filter. There's an appealing guest roaster programme too. rosslyncoffee.com

Visions Canteen

31 New Inn Yard, EC2A 3EY

Everyone's favourite purveyors of Scottish-Asian fusion food and tasty Dark Arts coffee, Greg and Dom at Lanark Coffee, have taken over the site formerly occupied by Magnus Reid's Cream restaurant in Spitalfields. The enticing menu includes everything from banh xeo to crab omelette with coconut curry. instagram.com/visionscanteen

CROSSTOWN

Crosstown Marylebone

5-6 Picton Place, W1U 1BL

Crosstown has been quietly establishing itself as a coffee and doughnut mini-chain. It now has seven locations across the capital, each offering the classic combination of caffeine and glazed sourdough. Its latest location in Marylebone is the company's first vegan coffee shop. Coffee, as always, is provided by Caravan. crosstowndoughnuts.com

Urban Baristas

11 Queensway, W2 4QJ

Urban Baristas continues its winning streak when it comes to locations, bringing its mix of design and consistently high-quality Union coffee to yet another neighbourhood. Wapping, Bounds Green and Waterloo are already home to Urban Baristas – now Queensway has joined the party. urbanbaristas.co.uk

Jardin du Jasmin

161 Great Portland Street, W1W 5PB

Alongside fresh food typical of Damascus, Syria, Jardin du Jasmin serves no-nonsense, minimal latte art coffees from Climpson & Sons. Don't miss the Arabic ibrik-brewed coffee with cardamom, served in gorgeous cups from Kuwait. fb.com/jardindujasminldn
